

რუსულ კანონს

არ დავემორჩილებით!

DRI activities in May

- The authorities illegally dispersed an assembly against the Russian law
- The Ministry of Internal Affairs violates guidelines for acting during assemblies and demonstrations
- Police inaction towards violence against protestors indicates instrumentalization of violent groups
- DRI: Violence against civilians and civil activists is normalized by the authorities
- Physical retaliation against protestors cannot be considered a legitimate police measure
- 32 years have passed since the tragedy of Zari
- Muhajirism without Georgian Government's political assessment
- Sokhumi is delaying the consideration of the foreign agents law. At the same time, pressure on non-government organizations operating in occupied Gali
- Democracy Research Institute assesses situation of those arrested during the protests against the Russian law

Democracy Research Institute is a public policy think tank that aims at promotion and protection of human rights and fundamental freedoms; establishment of the transparent and accountable governance system based on the rule of law and human rights; support to the establishment of free and fair society; support to the protection of human rights in conflict-affected regions; restoration of trust among parties and promotion of integration policy and support to the European integration.

DRI in Coalition activities

- The Government's Violence Cannot Stop the Georgian People's Aspiration towards the European Future
- The Russian Law must be withdrawn unconditionally
- The government continues to use violence against the participants of the peaceful protest in order to defend "Russian Law"
- Statement: We Will Not Obey the "Russian Law"
- We continue our legal fight against the Russian law
- Georgian non-governmental organizations continue to protect the rights of detainees at peaceful demonstrations

Free legal aid is available for children and young people

We offer free legal advice on hate crimes, hate speech, bullying/cyberbullying, and violence.

Our lawyers will provide you with legal advice and act as your representatives in investigative agencies and court if:

- Someone uses hate speech against you;
- You feel oppressed in or outside of school;
- You are being bullied/cyber-bullied and abused online;
- You are experiencing any form of physical abuse (physical, sexual, psychological, coercion, etc.);
- You are a parent/legal guardian and your child needs legal help due to bullying, hate crime, or violence;
- You are another involved entity (educator, social worker, psychologist, etc.) and your student/beneficiary has been subjected to hate speech, and oppression and requires legal assistance.

Call us :
593 75 54 44;
555 78 77 55;

Address: 0160 Tbilisi, a. Ghakhokidze st. 11a, (former Gagarin 2 lane) III floor

UK Government

UK in Support of Sustainable Peace
Complementary Initiative to COBRAM

