

Forward to Europe Georgia!

DRI activities in June

- What is happening in Abkhazia against the backdrop of the current political crisis in Tbilisi?
- What will South Ossetia's de facto parliament look like in the next five years?
- State Security Service irrationally spends budgetary and human resources
- How was the illegitimate voting process conducted in South Ossetia/Tskhinvali region?
- DRI: Responsibility for the criminal actions committed by the violent groups rests with the authorities
- The annual report of the State Security Service avoids mentioning Russia as a threat
- The case of Vitali Karbaia: Another institutional proof of ethnic discrimination in occupied Abkhazia
- International Criminal Court and Georgia: achievements and missed opportunities

DRI offers free legal aid to people living in the occupied territories and along the occupation line

Hot line:

511 331 228

Democracy Research Institute is a public policy think tank that aims at promotion and protection of human rights and fundamental freedoms; establishment of the transparent and accountable governance system based on the rule of law and human rights; support to the establishment of free and fair society; support to the protection of human rights in conflict-affected regions; restoration of trust among parties and promotion of integration policy and support to the European integration.

Who is afraid of democracy in Sokhumi and Tbilisi?

On June 6, the Democracy Research Institute held a discussion on the topic: "Who is afraid of democracy in Sokhumi and Tbilisi?" The theme discussed at the event was the influence of the "Russian law" on Tbilisi and Sokhumi and the existing challenges.

